70/10/21 Report on matters outstanding

The ‘Coming Out-Out’ day was deemed to be a success with about 80 people attending and most of the people who attended enjoyed the event. There were however some comments on lack of planning, late advertising and advertised features that didn’t take place. It was agreed that a proper planning and delegation strategy should be adopted for future events.

Defib has been ordered. Sleaford Round Table have an electrician waiting to fit it once delivered.

Road safety report went off to Cllr Key and a Highways assessor was seen at the bus stop last week taking photographs.

District Cllr Ogden thanked the parish for the flowers.

A Brother business printer was purchased from Ink & Toner with full set of inks at a cost of £264.95 and is installed in the office. Clerk to invoice the Village Hall Committee for their contribution.

Speedwatch - Cllr Yeomans asked for Speedwatch to be added to next month’s agenda for a final decision as training courses are running imminently. Clerk to pass on volunteer details.

The Council resolved to purchase the dog poo bag clips sourced by Cllr Smith to a value of £15.

71/10/21 Financial Matters & Clerk's Report

- a) The Council agreed the Clerk could book 'Understanding the Planning System' training and the New Councillor training was also to be booked for Cllr Melbourne.
- b) Cllrs were asked to consider any parish projects they would like to plan for in the next budget.
- c) The clerk would like a lockable 4 drawer or cupboard style steel cabinet for PC filing at the village hall. Clerk & Cllr Smith to see what can be obtained second hand.
- d) The clerk also reported that she is currently 13 hours over allotted hours. She suggested not holding meetings in January and February - to be added to the agenda.
